

„SHIT“ – what a great word to know!

1. Watch the video and match the word “shit” with the correct meaning.
 “ISMO – I didn’t know sh*t”
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=igh9iO5BxBo>
2. Choose five “shit” expressions or phrases and use them in an everyday situation. Write a dialogue or conversation between friends.
3. Send your dialogue to a partner. He/She has to find the correct definitions for each use.

“I didn’t know shit!”
“It’s shit.”
“It’s the shit.”
“I had to study that shit.”
“I give a shit!”
“To give shit to s.o.”
“To take shit”
“To take a shit”
“Don’t touch my shit!”
“I can’t deal with her shit!”
“I have to put up with his shit!”
“Clean up your shit!”
“I have shit to do.”
“She loves to go shopping and shit.”
“He is a big piece of shit.”
“My friend is the shit!”

= “It’s bad.”
= “I care!”
= To tell someone off
= “I didn’t know anything!”
= “Don’t touch my things/stuff/ belongings!”
= I have tasks which I must finish.
= “He is the greatest!”
= “It’s really good.”
= She likes to buy things. “Shit” means nothing here.
= To go to the bathroom
= To accept to be treated badly or to be bullied
= “I have to accept the way he behaves.”
= “Take your things/belongings away.”
= He is only thinking of himself. He doesn’t care about others.
= “I had to study that topic/subject.”
= I can’t solve her problems.